Dear Parents / Guardians,

YEAR 2 EDUCATIONAL TRIP TO AQUARIA KLCC

In Term 1, the Year Two students will be visiting Aquaria KLCC to extend their classroom learning experience. This visit is connected to our unit of study on beaches, islands and life in the ocean.

This trip will give them the opportunity to:

- explore the water animals from the deep ocean, streams, coastal, forest and jungle water animals, including weird and wonderful ones.
- have a first-hand experience of the underwater life in the ocean.
- discover the differences of the underwater animals of freshwater and marine animals.
- reinforce their experiential and contextual learning.
- ask relevant questions about marine life.

The programme for the day will be:

Date	Wednesday - 23 rd October 2019

Opportunities to share: Talk and discuss on what happened in the day is encouraged. Please take this opportunity to reflect with your child and their experiences.

Discussion stems:

- What was the most exciting thing you saw or learned on the trip today?
- What was the sea animal you liked best in the aquarium?
- Tell me some facts you learned about the animals today.
- What did you notice about how the animals live and what they need?
- Can we have these animals as pets? Explain or tell me why.

Best Regards,

JOANNA JOHAMI
Head of Junior School
